The Writer Behind The Blog

I'm Sam. This is my parenting blog, based around life with my two "lively" daughters, Mouse (the big one) and Moo (the small one).

I eat much, much chocolate but I run a lot, so it's fine. Sort of.

I publish to Huffington Post and I'm a resident blogger for Infruition. I'm also their Brand Ambassador for the Kids range of water bottles.

Skillset

What can Mouse, Moo & Me Too do for you?

- * I can promote your products, service or website through reviews, giveaways and write-ups.
- * I can copywrite content for your brand, in the style of my own blog.
- * I can generate interest and traffic towards your website through my social media links.
- * I can collaborate with your blog through guest series' and features.
- * I can make a superb array of layered, yes LAYERED, brownies.
